

Sending an ePub file to common devices

The First 100 Years is available on the Court's website in ePub format. ePub is compatible with most devices. Performing a web search of how to download an ePub to whichever device you own will bring up numerous instructional pages and tutorial videos. Below are links to two methods for downloading The First 100 Years to a Kindle or Apple Books.

Downloading to your Kindle. To download the file to you Kindle you will need to send the file to your Kindle account. For additional information see: Send to Kindle

Download the File to your Apple device. Tap and hold the file, click "send to", select Books. For additional information see: How to Import Epub to Apple Books \(tutorial\)
